

STEVEN ADAMS

Steven Adams is an award-winning Manager/Producer and Partner at Alta Global Media where he represents international media companies and talent. Adams produced the Peabody Award winning A HUEY P NEWTON STORY and the Netflix Original adaptation of Roger Guenveur Smith's solo performance piece RODNEY KING, both directed by Academy Award winner Spike Lee.

As a VFX Executive Producer with Paris-based VFX house BUF, his credits include such Academy Award winners as James Cameron's AVATAR, Ang Lee's LIFE OF PI, THOR for Marvel Studios, as well as GREEN LANTERN, GREEN HORNET, Stephen Sommers' ODD THOMAS, and Tim Burton's DARK SHADOWS.

Steven is an accomplished host, moderator and inspirational speaker for the MOTION PICTURE ACADEMY, CANNES, DISCOP, NATPE, SUNDANCE, TIFF, MIPCOM, CONTENT LONDON amongst many others. Adams speaks on a wide variety of topics ranging from the entertainment industry to American culture and motivational speaking.

Steven is a member of the Producers Guild of America and the Television Academy and sits on the advisory board for Content London and the Los Angeles Art Association. He serves as Board Ambassador for the Blackhouse Foundation, an official partner of the Sundance Institute.